

Addict to Athlete One Step (last reading)

(Put one foot in the circle for the addict who is still suffering and repeat after me.)

Sobriety like this program can be established by putting one foot in front of another and believing sanity is possible by believing one day at a time.

Keep coming back... it works if you work it!